Luxury Vinyl Planks

INTRODUCING PANORAMA LUXURY VINYL PLANKS

bring the beauty of aussie species, oaks, and stones to your home

Signature's flagship vinyl plank range is an artistic collection inspired by Australian landscape art and Impressionism. Mirroring the meaning of the collection, Panorama, the collection is an ode to the breathtaking panoramic landscapes of Australia as envisaged by the creative lens of artists' who viewed the country as a land of sun-soaked cities and earthy bushlands, capturing the natural resilience in its most accurate form.

This characteristically Australian flavour is reminiscent of the authentic textures, hues, and colours of the brand-new luxury vinyl plank range. Planks emulate the look and feel of aussie species and oak timbers and the raw sophistication of stone – elements so distinct to the country's scenery. As a result, Panorama feels grounded and earthy with authentic, durable, resilient timber and stone-style planks to elevate your home.

The 22 references are named after street names in the Heidelberg area in Melbourne as a tribute to the Heidelberg School of Impressionism – the first distinctively Australian school of painting. The place where it all started.
